EARLY ANCESTERS

Most of the early ancesters of the Wait or Waite families came from England. They spelled their names various ways, such as Wayte-Wayt-Wayght-Waight-Wate-Weight-Waiet etc. The earliest emigrant was a Richard Waite, born in 1586, and was in Boston Mass., in 1634. There was a Richard Waite, who was born in 1608, who took up grants of land in Watertown Mass., in 1637, and Thomas Wait born in 1601 was in Portsmouth Rhode Island.

Like many of the English families, the Waite family was granted a Coat of Arms. The Crest is described as a bugle horn, stringed sable, garnished an Arms "Argent chevron gules between three bugle horns, stringed, sable, borne by the name Wayte.

The motto of the Wait family is "Pro aris et focus" meaning "For our homes and altars".

The name Waite means a minstrel, taken from the German name Wacht, which means Watch or Watchman.

PLEASE NOTE.

In order to locate the person you are interested in, please refer to the name index in the rear of this record.

HATFIELD GREAT CALAMITY

In the Spring of 1677,Benjamin Wait's house was situated on the west side of Hatfield Street,just south of Kings Hill,and was burned on 9/19/1677. A party of abt 50 Indians (instigated by the French)felled upon the town of Hatfield, set fire to the town,shot and killed several,and made captives of others. During this attack,Benjamin Wait's family consisted of his wife Martha,and three mentioned girls above(#14-#15-#16)were taken captives,and were taken to Canada. Benjamin Wait then ransom his family,and had to pay £200,and when he went after them,he found a little daughter had been added to his family,who was then named Canada,as she had been born in Canada.She is #17 above mentioned.
